Estimate of the duration of this special arrangement stated. The Probationers will have to be notified as Munsiffs; but will earn only an allowance of Rs 50 each according to the recommendation of the Chief Court; whereas a man appointed as Munsiff is entitled to get Rs 150 rising to Rs 200 after two years approved service. Should the recommendation be approved, the service rendered by the Probationers under this special arrangement would not count as "approved service" for earning Rs 200.

Bangalore.

20th August 1904.

From

V.A. Rajaratna Mudaliar Esquire,
Registrar of the Chief Court of Mysore.

To

B.K. Vencata Varadiengar Esquire,
Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
General and Revenue Departments.

Sir,

I am directed to submit for the consideration ~~also~~ and orders of Government the following proposal for relieving the congestion of work in the Munsiff's Courts at Bangalore and Mysore.

On the 30th June 1904, there were pending in the -- Principal Munsiff's Court at Bangalore 362 Original Suits, 123 Small Causes, 396 Execution cases and 67 Miscellaneous cases, while the numbers in the Additional Munsiff's Court were 346, 131, 297 and 95 respectively. On the same date there were pending in the Principal Munsiff's Court at Mysore 366 Original Suits, 95 Small Causes, 230 Execution cases and 152 Miscellaneous cases and the figures for the Additional Munsiff's Court were 451, 85, 326 and 84 respectively. Some of these Original Suits have been pending over three years. Unless special measures are adopted, it will take a long time before the arrears are cleared off.

It appears to the Judges that the two Judicial Probationers who are now attached to this Court might be usefully employed in the disposal of these old cases. One may be deputed to work as 2nd Additional Munsiff at Bangalore and the other at Mysore in the same capacity. The District Judge can transfer

transfer to these Munsiffs such cases as he may select from the pending files of the Principal and Additional Munsiffs. No extra establishment will be needed as all the clerical work in connection with the cases to be transferred can be attended to by the establishment of the Court from whose file they are transferred. Accommodation for the two extra Munsiffs can be found both at Bangalore and Mysore. The proposal, if sanctioned, will not only effectually reduce the heavy pending files of the Bangalore and Mysore Munsiffs' Courts but give a good training to the Judicial Probationers prior to their appointment as permanent Munsiffs in the same way as the investiture of Magisterial powers in the case of Revenue Probationers.

I am to add that the Probationers might be given an allowance of Rs.50 each, in addition to the pay of Rs.100 so that their emoluments may be equal to the minimum pay of a Munsiff of the last Grade. This is the only additional expenditure which the proposal involves, but in the circumstances stated above, it will be in furtherance of a scheme with a two-fold advantage.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant;
